

PROPOSED OUTCOME

DECLARATION

On the occasion of the Southern Africa Regional Preparatory Conference to the 9th Pan-African Congress

'From Pan-Africanism to Agenda 2063: The role of the African Diaspora in the establishment of institutional links for Africa's economic transformation'

Hosted in Pretoria, South Africa

05 December 2023

We, the participants of the Southern Africa Regional Preparatory Conference, convened in Pretoria, South Africa, on the margins of the Science Forum hosted by the Republic of South Africa, in preparation of the 9th Pan-African Congress to be hosted in Lomé, Togo in 2024;

REPRESENTING our Governments, local and regional bodies, industry and civil society organisations, we emphasise renewed appreciation for the need to strengthen unity, cohesion, foster international solidarity and cooperation across borders, within and outside Africa amongst the global African community which finds expression through the diaspora,

ACKNOWLEDGING the importance and historical contribution of the Diaspora in the struggles against colonialism, segregation, and apartheid, and the fight for Africans and Africa Descends to attain freedom from all forms of racial oppression and slavery,

RECOGNISING the ongoing dialogue between Africans on the Continent and the Caribbean Community representatives of the African Diaspora in various regions of the world, including North America, South and Latin America, Europe and elsewhere,

RECALLING the struggles of Africa's Founders to promote the values and political ideology of Pan-Africanism in Africa as well as in the Diaspora,

STRESSING the importance of the universal bond of sharing that connects all humanity, as espoused in the philosophy of Ubuntu, and the contribution of this approach as a beacon of hope and in driving Pan-Africanism as the underpinning foundation of the upcoming 9th Pan-African Congress in 2024,

BUILDING on the outcomes of the Global African Diaspora Summit held in 2012, which endorsed the adoption of the five Legacy Projects such as the African Institute for

Remittances, African Diaspora Global Marketplace, African Diaspora Professional Database, African Diaspora Investment Fund and the African Diaspora Volunteer Corps. Furthermore, recalling the decision of the Global African Diaspora Summit that declared the African Diaspora as the 6th Region of the African Union,

WELCOMING the declaration of the Decade for African Roots and Diaspora for the period 2021-2031, and as such, having convened the Southern African Regional Preparatory Conference as a precursor to the 9th Pan-African Congress that will be held in Lomé, Togo in October 2024,

ACKNOWLEDGING that the Decade for African Roots and Diasporas provides a unique opportunity to look into the notions of deculturation and acculturation in diminishing the cultural power of the African Diaspora and African Descendants.

RECOGNISING that the Diaspora constitutes an important economic, social, political, and cultural power and in this regard reaffirm Aspiration five (5) of Agenda 2063 that encapsulate “Africa with a Strong Cultural identity Common Heritage, Values and Ethics”. Aspiration 5 validates Pan-Africanism ideals and is therefore presents a beacon of hope,

RECOGNISING the call from the previous Congresses, for all African Governments and peoples to take practical steps collectively – and in solidarity - for the unification and development of the African Continent and its Diaspora,

UNDERLINING the need for better coordination and development of institutions in Africa and the African Diaspora, dedicated to innovation and invention for the socio- economic and cultural development of Africa and the Diaspora,

UNDERSCORING the importance of the African Diaspora in contributing to the welfare and development of the African Continent and building onto the various proclamations of the African Union (AU) Assembly of Heads of State and Government,

RECALLING the importance of an integrated and politically united Africa that is based on the ideals of Pan-Africanism and a vision of an African Renaissance with a strong African cultural identity, common heritage, value and belief system, as espoused within Agenda 2063,

STRIVING for the Agenda 2063 aspiration of a prosperous Africa based on inclusive growth and sustainable development that is people driven and relying on the potential of the African people, with well-educated citizens and a skills revolution underpinned by Science, Technology, and Innovation,

NOTING the ongoing efforts regarding the AU Special Project on the evaluation of the First Ten-Year Implementation Plan and the development of the Second Ten-Year Implementation Plan of Agenda 2063, with special attention to enhancing collaboration on attaining the seven Moonshots that aim at fast-tracking continental development,

BEARING in mind the impact of the overall brain-drain of highly skilled African men and women in hampering sustainable development in the Continent and hindering the socio-economic development of African countries,

UNDERSCORING the importance of the theme “Pan-Africanism, Science, Knowledge and Technology”, which is a call to recognise the need for human resources, research, innovation, skills development and institutional links on the Continent, alongside the Diaspora,

ACKNOWLEDGING, from the above premise, that the Diaspora has vested interests in using their wealth of experiences and expertise acquired abroad, in building back for the benefit of the continent’s citizenry,

AFFIRMING the need to promote South-South Cooperation as a framework for enhancing mutual development as well as Pan-African Solidarity,

SEEKING to maximise the youth’s potential, spanning from competent industry leaders, scientists, scholars and entrepreneurs among others, in supporting prosperity and economic growth of the Continent,

REAFFIRMING the importance of women and youth as important pillars of our society that should be mainstreamed in all Diaspora discourses and actions,

EMPHASISING partnership with the private sector to promote the development of community media, including the print and electronic media and recognizing the positive contribution that the exercise of the right to freedom of expression, particularly by community media, and new technologies, including through the Internet,
